Main Street Bank Assigns Wellsburg President Locally owned bank promotes Executive Vice President

WELLSBURG – Main Street Bank has appointed Charles (Chuck) W. Bell to serve as President of its Wellsburg bank.

As President, Bell will manage all operations of the bank, located at 1010 Commerce Street.

“I am proud to lead this established bank in Brooke County,” Bell said. “I look forward to continuing to bring value to our community and serving our customers through relationships built on trust.”

The Brooke County bank began operations with Bell as Executive Vice President more than a year ago. Today, the bank has secured nearly $20 million in deposits. In October, the bank will celebrate its one-year anniversary at its newly constructed building on Commerce Street.

Bell is a graduate of Wellsburg High School and Marietta College where he received a B.A. in Political Science and a minor in Business Administration. With 21 years of banking experience, Bell is deeply involved in the community and has served on Boards of the Brooke County Wellness Program, the Chamber of Commerce, Easter Seals, Historic Wellsburg, the Planning Commission, Special Olympics.

Main Street Bank is a locally owned and managed bank, offering customer service 50 hours a week with all checking, savings and loan services. Its parent corporation, Main Street Financial Services, was founded June 20, 2003. A full-service financial institution, Main Street Bank offers a complete line of banking products designed to suit the needs of its varied customer base.
