Main Street Banks Hosts Business Luncheon Senior Advisor to the U.S Treasury Secretary Set to Speak

WHEELING –Main Street Bank is hosting a business luncheon Friday, March 9, 2006, at which Kimberly Reed, Senior Advisory to the U.S. Treasury Secretary, will discuss the U.S. economy and President Bush’s agenda for continued strong growth and job creation.

Held at the Fort Henry Club on Chapline Street, the event will allow Reed to meet with and give remarks to Wheeling area business leaders.

“Main Street Bank is pleased to host the U.S. Treasury Department,” said Richard Lucas, president of Main Street Bank. “It is important for a community bank to provide a forum for economic policy, not only in our community, but as a nation as a whole.”

Reed is a native of Buckhannon, W.Va., and is a graduate of West Virginia Wesleyan College and West Virginia University College of Law. As Senior Advisor, she provides counsel to the Secretary and the Treasury Chief of Staff on key policy matters, including tax, economic, and retirement security issues. Reed also coordinates issues within the Department and its Bureaus, as well as with the White House and other agencies, and is involved in the day-to-day management of Departmental operations.
