

Senior Vice President Receives Award

WHEELING, W.Va. -- Cheri DeBlasis, Senior Vice President at Main Street Bank, has been recently presented a plaque from Joe W. Hatfield, Executive Director of the West Virginia Housing Development Fund, as the first place award recipient by being the top producing housing lender in the small bank category in North Central West Virginia for the year 2005.

The bank recognizes and appreciates the success of Cheri in the residential lending programs of the bank and the community that Main Street services.
